Subject Response to Public Information Request - Victim Services
Attachments 2026-10-23_FCGGC_FollowUp_District_Attorney_Victim_Services_CJC_EMAIL.pdf

Good morning, Brian,

I hope you're doing well. Thanks again for the victim services records you sent over in September. They were a real help, and I appreciated you explaining how your Victim Coordinator gets a packet out to every victim.

I'm attaching a short signed letter with two small follow-ups:

1. From my August 17 request: whether the Victim Assistance Coordinator position is currently filled, and whether your office has any agreement with another group that does victim-advocacy work. If there's nothing in writing, just a quick note saying so is all I need.
2. My September 3 request about the Criminal Justice Center: any existing records on what DA functions are planned for the new facility, cost estimates, or alternatives considered. No case files or anything confidential.

Copies of both earlier requests are attached for reference. When you get a chance, would you mind shooting me a quick reply that you got this? It just helps me keep my files straight.

Thanks, Brian. I appreciate you and the work your office does.
